2. Booking status rules

Use status changes consistently. This is the main audit trail inside the dashboard.

Status	Use this when	Required action
New	A booking has just arrived	Review and decide if it is real
Contacted	You have messaged, called, or emailed the customer	Add an internal note with contact method and date
Quoted	You sent a price or package option	Enter the quoted price
Booked	Customer confirmed the session	Add date, time, location, and final plan in notes
Completed	Session is finished and images have been delivered or are fully handled	Add final delivery note
Cancelled	Customer cancelled, did not reply, or booking was not suitable	Add reason in notes

Rule: Do not leave real bookings as New after you have contacted the customer.

3. Daily booking handling process

Run this process every day.

Workflow diagram 2

Daily checklist:

☐

Review all New bookings.

☐

Delete test or spam only.

☐

Contact every real new customer.

☐

Change status after action.

☐

Add internal notes.

☐

Enter quoted price for paid quotes.

☐

☐

Review tomorrow and this week bookings.

4. Real booking triage

When a booking arrives, classify it first.

Workflow diagram 3

Check these fields:

Field	What to check
Name	Looks real, not random test text
Phone	Usable Australian number if provided
Email	Looks valid
Service	Session type selected
Preferred Date	Customer selected a date
Message	Helps you understand what they want
Free Portrait Event ID	Should exist for Free Portrait bookings after the latest patch

5. Paid session workflow

Use this for Family, Couple, Friends, Portrait, and Small Event bookings.

Workflow diagram 4

Ask these questions when details are missing:

- How many people will be photographed?
- What kind of photos do you want?
- Do you have a preferred location?
- Do you prefer morning, afternoon, or sunset?
- Is this for a special event or milestone?
- Do you need help choosing outfits?
- Do you need the photos by a specific date?

Internal note example:

Contacted by email on 25 June. Customer wants a couple session at Glenelg, sunset preferred. Waiting for final date confirmation.

Quote note example:

Quoted A$350 for Couple Session. Includes relaxed session, edited gallery, and Adelaide location guidance. Waiting for response.

Booked note example:

Booked for 12 July, 4:30 pm at Glenelg. Couple session. Warm natural style requested. Customer confirmed by email.

6. Free Portrait workflow

Use this for Free Portrait registrations only.

Workflow diagram 5

Free Portrait checks:

Check	Expected result
Service type	Free Portrait Session
Preferred Date	Same date as one active Free Portrait session
Free Portrait Event ID	Linked to the correct session
Session status	Published or active
End time	Booking should relate to that session and be counted before the end time
Customer expectation	One individual portrait only

Free Portrait internal note example:

Free Portrait registration for 12 July session at Semaphore. Confirmed by email.
Individual portrait only.

If date does not match:

Customer selected Free Portrait but preferred date does not match an active session.
Asked customer to choose one of the published dates.

If customer does not attend:

No show for 12 July Free Portrait session. No images delivered.

7. Follow up process

Use this when a customer has not replied.

Workflow diagram 6

Recommended follow up timing:

Stage	Timing	Action
First contact	Same day as enquiry	Reply and change status to Contacted
First follow up	24 to 48 hours later	Short reminder
Final follow up	3 to 5 days later	Final check
Close booking	After no reply	Change to Cancelled

Follow up note example:

First follow up sent on 27 June. No response yet.

Cancellation note example:

No reply after two follow ups. Marked as cancelled on 1 July.

8. Pre-session checklist

Use this once the booking is Booked .

Workflow diagram 7

Checklist:

☐

Confirm date and time.

☐

Confirm location and meeting point.

☐

Save customer contact details.

☐

Check travel time.

☐

Check weather.

☐

Charge camera batteries.

☐

Format or prepare memory cards.

☐

Prepare lens and backup gear.

☐

Bring props or lighting if needed.

☐

Send reminder message.

Reminder note example:

Reminder sent one day before session. Location and time confirmed.

9. Post-session workflow

Workflow diagram 8

Post-session checklist:

- ☐ Backup images.
- ☐ Select best images.
- ☐ Edit selected photos.
- ☐ Export final files.
- ☐ Deliver images to customer.
- ☐ Add delivery note.
- ☐ Change status to Completed.

Completed note example:

Session completed. Final edited images delivered by Google Drive on 15 July.

10. Delete rules

Only delete bookings when they should not be part of your business records.

Workflow diagram 9

Delete only:

- Test submissions
- Obvious spam
- Duplicate booking created by mistake
- Mistyped test data from your own testing

Do not delete:

- Real customer enquiries
- Cancelled bookings
- No reply bookings

- No show bookings
- Completed bookings

Audit rule: For real bookings, use `Cancelled` instead of deleting. This keeps your enquiry history and conversion data accurate.

11. Weekly audit checklist

Run this once a week.

Workflow diagram 10

Checklist:

☐

No real bookings stuck in New .

☐

Every Contacted booking has an internal note.

☐

Every Quoted booking has a quoted price.

☐

Every Booked booking has date, time, and location confirmed.

☐

Every completed session is marked Completed .

☐

Cancelled bookings have a reason.

☐

Free Portrait registrations match the correct session.

☐

Test bookings have been deleted.

☐

Spam bookings have been deleted.

12. Monthly audit checklist

Run this at the end of each month.

Area	What to check
Total bookings	Check booking volume
New to Contacted	Make sure new bookings were handled quickly
Quoted revenue	Check all quoted bookings have prices
Booked revenue	Check booked and completed sessions
Completed revenue	Check final completed income
Cancelled bookings	Review reasons
Free Portrait sessions	Check registration count per session
Notes quality	Each real booking should have clear notes

Monthly audit questions:

- How many enquiries came in?
 - How many became booked sessions?
 - Which service types received the most interest?
 - Which quotes did not convert?
 - Did Free Portrait create follow up paid opportunities?
 - Were any bookings missed?
 - Were any bookings deleted that should have been cancelled instead?

13. Naming and note standards

Use short, factual notes. Do not write long paragraphs unless needed.

Good note format:

[Date] [Action] [Result] [Next step]

Examples:

25 June. Contacted by email. Asked for number of people and preferred location. Waiting for reply.

28 June. Customer confirmed Family Session at Glenelg, 4:30 pm. Status changed to Booked.

12 July. Free Portrait customer attended. Selected images delivered same day. Status changed to Completed.
